1. I'll go pick up a new cake

2. I am so sorry, are you all right?

3. Andy, please keep the children downstairs for a bit. And we need a new plan for dessert...

4. Let me go get the mop. I know where it is

9. This can be a very good illustration for Spiritual Gifts

8. Oh, let me help you get up and clean it up

7. This can happen to anyone. I am sure you can do better next time

6. We should get somebody to clean up the floor and I will go to the kitchen and see there's any cake left for the dinner

5. God must have something better than a cake for us

1. I'll go pick up a new cake (giving)

2. I am so sorry, are you all right? (showing mercy)

3. Andy, please keep the children downstairs for a bit. And we need a new plan for dessert... (leading)

4. Let me go get the mop. I know where it is (serving)

9. This can be a very good illustration for Spiritual Gifts (teaching) 😊

8. Oh, let me help you get up and clean it up (helping)

7. This can happen to anyone. I am sure you can do better next time (exhortation)

6. We should get somebody to clean up the floor and I will go to the kitchen and see there's any cake left for the dinner (administration)

5. God must have something better than a cake for us (faith)

Are You Ready to Go?

WHAT ARE MY...
Spiritual Gifts?

- Be Informed (2 Tim. 3:16-17)
- Be Available (Mark 6:34; 2 Tim. 4:2)
- Be Open (1 Cor. 12:31)
- Be Sensitive (Pro. 11:14)
- Be Busy (2 Tim. 1:6; 1 Peter 4:10-11)

It is God's commandment that we exercise our spiritual gifts. What are you going to do?
